

Paying money into Aegon Retirement Choices (ARC) and One Retirement

You can pay money into ARC and One Retirement wrappers by:

- bank transfer, and/or
- cheque.

Along with payment, we also need to receive a request so we can allocate the money. You can do this online if you have transactional access. If you have view only access, you can contact your financial adviser for assistance or if you don't have one you can contact us to request access.

If your financial adviser has already submitted a request to us on your behalf and they've asked you to send us the money then you can use the details on the next page.

If we don't receive a request, we'll return the money.

Submitting a top up

Aegon Individual Savings Account (ISA) and Aegon General Investment Account (GIA)

If your financial adviser is sending the request on your behalf you can send us the money using the details on the next page.

If you don't have a financial adviser we recommend seeking advice, you can visit Money Helper to find the right one for you. If you still wish to proceed, log in to your account and from Account details, select the GIA or ISA and then Top up from the Transactions tab.

ARC Self-invested Personal Pension (SIPP) and One Retirement

If your financial adviser is sending the request on your behalf you can send us the money using the details on the next page.

If you don't have a financial adviser we recommend seeking advice, you can visit Money Helper to find the right one for you. If you still wish to proceed, log in to your account and from Account details, select the self-invested personal pension or One Retirement wrapper and then Top up from the Transactions tab. You'll then go through the Transfer in steps, either selecting a Single investment for a one-off top up or Regular Investment to make regular contributions.
