

Business Protection

Shareholder protection - company buyback of shares

This flowchart shows the process for setting up shareholder protection on a company buyback basis.

Shareholders should take advice before adopting this method of shareholder protection, and involve their auditors, tax advisers and lawyers throughout. The information is based on our understanding of current legislation, taxation law and HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) practice, which may change.

